Synopsis

Reunite with your family and friends this Thanksgiving to give thanks for all the valuable things we have. Thanksgiving has always been a great opportunity to share a special dinner with our loved ones. This recipe book invites you to try to kindle the real meaning of thanksgiving by creating food so delicious that all who have a bite will be more grateful about your food than anything else! There's a recipe inside for everyone! Discover the tasty dishes that will be talked about for long after Thanksgiving. You'll find appetizers, main dishes, side dishes, and desserts. There's a recipe inside for everyone. If you don't like turkey, try some duck! If you don't like duck, try some meatloaf! Don't feel like eating pie? Have some pudding instead. All of the recipes are guaranteed to be simple, and easy to prepare, but at the same time, so full of love, flavor, texture, and colors that will transform your table into a food festival that your guests will wish would last forever.
