What people say about this book

Mary Ann Fischer, "One reply was especially great. A former student of mine (this goes back Not only did it meet MY expectations, I bought 4 additional copies to send to friends. One reply was especially great. A former student of mine (this goes back 50 years) informed me that though he was now "areligious/atheist", he was finding "Fr. William O'Malley's book a really good read"! I responded by thanking him for liking one of my favorite religious writers. SO, read this book and share it with lots of folks. Goodness knows, we need Bill O'Malley now more than ever MAF"

Francis Joseph, "Brought to new light. The title says it , Being There. The old is made new. The hidden is brought to new light. A fresh new look at the parables of our Lord. Still water can be shallow but often times it is much deeper than it appears . Going deeper into the parables is Being There . Thank you , Father O'Malley"

Steve Kiely, "Superb tool for reflection and meditation on Jesus's Parables.. This is a wonderful book for meditation on the parables. The author takes each parables and expands the story a little bit, then offers six bullet points to think about. I have found the bullet points to be an excellent topic for meditation. It makes Lectio Divina easier."

Ebook Library Reader, "Great insights. Love the way the author retell the Great insights. Love the way the author retell the parables as stories. One can find a kernel of wisdom for own life."

Aimee E Convery, "This book give parables some meat. Each is told This book give parables some meat. Each is told in story fashion with characters made to come alive. I will never read the parables the same again. It is one to ponder and reflect on."

Joan, "THE PARABLES WILL NEVER BE THE SAME AFTER READING "BEING THERE". THE PARABLES OF JESUS COME ALIVE AND RELEVANT TO TODAY'S WORLD. A GREAT WRITER WITH A WONDERFUL SENSE OF HUMOR. LOVED IT!!!!!"

Jane, "Five Stars. Reflecting, stretching deepening book!"
